Registration via the xxx.delta.io

The user registration can be carried out on the website https://xxx.delta3.io/login. The xxx stands for the respective customer-specific instance, e.g. https://bmw.delta3.io/ for an instance of BMW.

Use this address to access the website and then make your profile: https://d3.delta3.io/
Click on the "Register Here" link on the page and then fill out the information on the next page.

After clicking on "Register", the user will receive a verification email to the specified address. By confirmation in the email, the user is displayed in the portal as "Verified".

The administrator must then set the new user to "Valid" if the newly logged on user is a valid user of the system.

To do this, click on the user until the background glows orange and then click on the pencil icon.
